

Spring show « Bedded blISS

Spring is ready to spring into bloom at the stunning gardens adjoining Loseley House

From Friday, April 17th until Sunday, 19th April, 10am-5pm, the stately home will open its grounds for the Loseley Spring Garden Show.

Highlights include plants for sale, garden stalls, driftwood sculpture, Whichford Pottery (Friday and Saturday only), garden furniture and food stalls.

The setting for the event is Loseley's stunning walled garden, which is a honeypot for garden enthusiasts up and down the country. The walled garden covers 2.5
acres and is divided into 'rooms', each with its own unique planting scheme and personality. Then there's the rose garden with more than one thousand bushes, the flower garden with its maze of pathways and hidden corners and the white garden that contrasts spectacular, showy,

blooms with lush yet subtle silver and grey foliage.
Loseley's extensive herb garden and organic vegetable garden are also well worth a visit to see the crop of unusual varieties. And, just outside the walls, the wildflower meadow is a haven of calm and tranquillity.
Over the long weekend of Loseley Spring Garden Show, visitors can enjoy delicious refreshments in the Wisteria Tea Room from Caper & Berry, the exclusive Loseley Caterers.

Tickets are £3.50 for adults, £2.80 concessions and under-16s go free. Group discounts (for a minimum of 10 people) are most welcome by prior arrangement.
