It's time to earn your stripes at this year's Godalming Town Show and Carnival

In Burys Field on Saturday, June 6th, action starts with the carnival (noon to 12.45pm), followed by the town show until 5pm and the whole day will be crowned with a free outdoor music festival in the evening.

The theme for this year's event, organised by Godalming Round Table and raising money for local good causes, is 'SAFARI'. In the evening, Burys Live! will be alive from 7pm to 10.30pm (gates open at 6.30pm).

"This annual event is a great way for us to come together as a community and celebrate the best of Godalming," says Chris Paul, town show chairman 2015.

"This year's theme is 'SAFARI', and we hope to bring a little bit of the African savannah to Godalming! Dig out your pith helmet and binoculars and join us for a day of adventure at the Bury's Field Game Reserve.

"It is time to get 'Out of Africa' and head down to the rugged grasslands of Godalming. There will be drums, dancing, a tented camp, authentic BBQ smoke and the chance to see some real African animals! ROAR!"

The event will kick off with a grand carnival procession, starting in the Mill Pool House car park in Mill Lane and finishing at Burys Field showground at 12.45pm (with a shorter route that's easier on little legs).

Chris adds: "Come as a pride of lions, a crash of rhinos, a herd of buffalo, a bloat of hippos or a dazzle of zebras. "You can throw on a safari suit and come as a ranger. "Don't forget your sunhat, sunscreen and a camera!"

All profits from the day's event will go to local charities and there will be a cup awarded to the best-dressed group. Lots of fresh food will be available for sale on the day and the Burys Live! event will feature talented live bands from Guildford's acclaimed Academy of Contemporary Music.
