

Interiors « Clockwatching

Don't forget; the clocks go back an hour on October 25th (at 2am to be precise!).

Why not mark the shift by investing in one of these time-telling beauties?

1. If you like traditional styles, this Moonphase Longcase Clock was crafted in 1765 by expert craftsman John Snelling of Alton. Featuring a fine-quality five-pillar movement, striking the hours on a bell in a solid mahogany case. Before you baulk at the price, this is an investment piece! £11,500, The Clock Workshop, 01962 842331.
2. Copper clock, Karlsson.
3. Wood wall clock, £42.95, Rigby & Mac.
4. Karlsson Mini Flip Wall Clock in orange, £125, Red Candy.
5. Large number text clock, £69, The Contemporary Home.
6. Click clock beech LED alarm clock, £29, Cotswold Trading Company.
7. Aeronaut wall clock, £112, Artisanti.
8. Large Roman Numeral Clock, Sophie Allport, £115
9. Spaniel Clock with wagging tail, £44.95, Annabel James.

